Dear Sirs,

LOTS 138, 139 and 474 - PARISH OF
WAIOTAHU: D. J. MCCORMACK

In reply to your letter of the 30th of August I can give no assurance that your client will receive a lease of the lands.

I have, however, transmitted the various Court Orders to the District Land Registrar for registration, and enclose your copy of the Advice Note.

You can decide whether or not you will attend to the registration.

Yours faithfully,

(H. P. Martin)
Deputy Registrar

POSTAL REGISTRATION

- ...
1. In accordance with the last paragraph of my memorandum of 25.9.68 dealing with Maraenui 15A, I now return these orders for registration pursuant to the provisions of Section 36 (2) of the Maori Affairs Act 1953.

You will observe in this case that the orders were sent at the request of Messrs Potts and Hodgson, Solicitors of Opotiki, and there can be no suggestion that our officers in Gisborne should attend to registration of these orders.
