

28th March

Auckland

Sam got going & send the letter by post. Sam speaks of it being injured. Which would be such a pity; hence is not my beloved pet.

So I write you in to my own own darling myself. Sam of the business, dearest dearest wife, Sam & I:

= work as best we can you. But for I like to have

This document is the property of the National Archives and may not be reproduced without the permission of the National Archives

The National Archives
P.O. Box 12250
Wellington

copies are supplied only to facilitate biblio research and may not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 349
Wellington

considered the temptation -

Monday if my feet has be = you must have a little more = avoid her hatred & chain. I fantasia, you are a strong Law Gray's forge just as I put. I think not ceasing!! was leaving Auckland, she for for any one in the world promised me to send her it up to you copy. I think with her from you when you open it. At London at the Indians you are to promise I to put on the shield

I should not be her mind

I received a letter from the John New's this morning.

telling me not to be anxious, he calm. Let us do the work, speak to state we are working for New Zealand & c. Why I think believe they can have what a business socialist party is Digitized only to facilitate research and may not be reproduced

without the permission of

The Alexander Turnbull Library
Wellington

I think you will like the hair. She is quite ~~short~~. Very pretty & gentle.
Stands nearly as high as Tommy.

She will put you out of conceit of going to the track to just the same days as long only pay. & a Capital animal he is. Having crossed the the many miles of bad country.
This river creek in deep hills to a near Kowhai top. They would make a Capital place for horses you see I do think you should Balmuccia top is being in this Camp. She is a thorough horse you would not imagine for me Widened. She had had a civilized life. There is nothing doing here now in the way of moving about the country. In the first place there are three top. & it seems if there is to be a comfortable place. There being so many rivers & creeks & crops. Which are quite impossible after a few miles down. The country being so mountainous they are especially in a few hours. & they are all an equal pace. Saw brother to Maria. her lover. & James. I have never written to the latter since his marriage. I fear he will think it rather strange not to hear of him.

Spetchi 4th April '66.

Dear Madam

My own darling son - I am sure if you received the two letters written from Auckland today, you dear friend, how astonished & disappointed you must have been to see them dated from Auckland, when to know I was obliged to return, however my own son must see it, a little bit longer - I hope also by this time you have your batch of chains & pins they meet with your approbation, the 1st horse you will take them for I choose among the given, has concealed

I am getting on well I have taken to the copies are supplied only to facilitate such orders after the return of the

My own son & me kind regards

The Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

care about having them, except perhaps to one party at Dunedin say - But you must admit my darling I am proud in that respect to you and I do for yourself what you are the very person of the matter, such manly men being especially my first leader I am still hard at work trying to get the British to bring in Keen, a short train now will decide, I am in the whole rather day since in the subject, but I am waiting particularly for the result, I have had two letters from London yesterday & today the Stock interesting I am becoming quite a I thank you both for the letter. She has a very gentle, very pretty & gentle, stays nearly as high as Tommy.

The milk just for cat & conceit of young the milk is just the same size as young milk, & a Capital animal he is. Having covered the the young milk of bad Country that were bred in deep hills he & were brought up. They would make a Capital pair for home for you see I do think you & Tom Baltimore help is being in their Camp. She is a ~~very~~ <sup>very</sup> ~~gentle~~ <sup>gentle</sup> you would both ~~make~~ <sup>make</sup> for me wisdom. She had had a very life - There is nothing doing here

now in the way of moving about
the Country. In the first place there is no more top. In the second it had to be made to impede to travel. There being no money to run & create crops, which are quite impossible after a few more years. The Country being so mountainous they can hardly be a few years. They can do an equal pace. Her mother & Maria, her lover, & James, I have never written to the latter since her marriage - I fear
he will think it rather strange that you know & do not know

This document is printed only for research and may not be reproduced
without the permission of:
The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

absence has effected. Made you some delicate requests how it felt My darling. I am sure you will see in your own responsibility in small matters.
I will not have back me. That is it should be done in your household affairs. I expect you are a great efficient house-keeper. I do not want a better girl to keep house for you than your own dear self.
So dear with I do look forward to the time when I shall be my own home. May God grant it will be soon.

the Government might some prominent their I has been I actually
I expect it my grey of Canada
I should
I have the best wife
I shall do
I expect you
I shall be
I shall be
I shall be
I shall be
I shall be
I shall be

Copies are supplied private research and may not without the permission of

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

[Mirrored bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, appearing upside down and mirrored.]

Copyright © 2011 by The Folger Shakespeare Library
All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission of The Folger Shakespeare Library.

How you will de excuse about wonder you take if I can get it then some flow design for a ladder strip. Write you but want something basing. Tell me how I can forgotten the number of your book. is it fine. I write being the black tell us with you it is a very good one. Look: = you are going to have a to in behind - I like you better to black tell them any thing nearly. I always found it it is a lady like, & it looks your figure. Look that my are round your pretty hair, & could make

April 11th

Thursday

Went to the bank & bank

Went to the bank & bank

J. P. [Signature]

Wrote a letter yesterday to a cutter, but the steam is not come. I thought the letter from you my writing line than not time and thought as I am writing in haste

In the spirit of the steam to enter the bar, today.

Have been away from days in the country

Copies are supplied only to facilitate private research and may not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library

P.O. Box 12349

Wellington