

April 11!

Thursday
Mum

Shoots down a letter yesterday by a cutter. but the steam spins come. I thought two letters from you my reading time than not time found them just as I am looking in haste for the front as the steam is not in the sun, waiting.

John Lee away from days up the country from the front & being from the front

J. Lee

J. Lee

Copies are supplied only to facilitate private research and may not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library

P.O. Box 12349

Wellington

for amusement, it is I am sorry for what quite safe all about here yet - Do not be angry The best time to "start" is when I think of the comes I think most likely about 10th: for about I shall come the moment it is not very in here. It is not far I fault - I am to arrange should be as long away as staff a mail being sent to Newark. You last yesterday, but I have letter is 24th & must see away to it should not for mention the amount have you - I am Mother & Joanna good bye my affection God bless you always

Copies are supplied only to facilitate private research and may not be reproduced without the permission of:

Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12343
Wellington

love for me. I thank God for your kindness in a woman to be my wife. for you were then I believe the patient Dry darling, wait for time. There is some good reason for the separation which he is not in control of - I mean in his hands to guard & protect you who are more precious to me than anything in the world - Galatians - will I give any money for your work to him. How soon the he shall I have not seen in Perth for three weeks. Family plan but had a pork. Last year. Some business in regular charge. Good bye & pray

25 April 1841

W. Wellington

[The reverse side of the page contains a dense, mirrored bleed-through of the handwriting from the front side, which is largely illegible due to the high contrast and overlapping of the ink.]

have you to the letter!!!

And you to the letter!!!

And you to the letter!!!

And you to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

My dear to the letter!!!

Smith is rather hard. Mr with a double middle Adams and a letter. Ah all great Hamlin. Can page for my own copying to G

My dear to the letter!!!

Copies are supplied only to facilitate private research and may not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

10 May 1856
Aotahi.

My darling love. I received letter this morn'g when I was away from the plain, so my return I found it. It is here, so I am having mine, & I send it by Captain Wilson who is going overland to Cambridge.
I have nothing more to do at this place, & have return'd to his opportunity. I came back from my friend's as -preceptor last evening.

With thy respect from Auckland, I am ever thy loving friend, & when my mother I wish to take you over to Auckland, to

Copies are supplied only to facilitate
private research and may not be reproduced
without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12343
Wellington

if the wedding takes place the beginning of November. I might be up for it. You see much better remaining in Auckland dearer one. It is an awfully dull place. Besides I do not see a decent loafing I am stopping at the Manor Hotel which is any thing but nice. I had a bed... I did not go to Church yesterday, it rained all day. On Saturday I dined at the S.O. - before.
There was no hospitality being had a desperately copies supplied only to facilitate private research and they not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

The morning after. I missed the train, & the steamers did not leave till 12/30. I was got sitting on stairs, do not feel a pleasant one. I shall not be separated ever long this time.
I find you get whatever you fancy to eat & drink. Did Mr. Walmesley call as he promised, on Saturday - & did you see your new prayer book on Sunday. You send me your countryman Paddy & Carroll, he is here. I don't say well, he is guaranteed to do

Thursday. Better
Sara's side

I arrived all right on Saturday morning about seven o'clock.
After a terrible paper. You my dearst would not have been very comfortable, & the landing was particularly unpleasant.
Heavy sleep nothing in, the bed not good very wet. I am as this present time sitting in the Court. Most interesting work. I am not able to say how long it will last. not less than 6 months.

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

When we be to get anything permanent - There is a great expectation from the South today & tomorrow, he I fancy there is not much regularity. Hope you are from my own country by the mail that leaves Auckland on the 3rd of June must occur this that letter my dearst hope

~~Not from you in the time of the war. I am not at all sure that I should be able to do this. I am not sure that I should be able to do this.
I am not sure that I should be able to do this.~~

Copies are supplied only to facilitate
private research and may not be reproduced
without the permission of:

Get the 5

I have only been few to send a line by day; I had not been then any time to day. I recruit in today's
-day by the my way to some of the to buy away 100 to 1/2 way
KMi

Copies are supplied only to facilitate
private research and may not be reproduced
without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12949
Wellington

by this time have had plenty of Water Carboys.
Have you got your things from Waihatu yet?

The people here are very civil & very nice has called upon me & I have actually returned the visit.

11: Received two dear letters
This morning my darling

Copies are supplied only to facilitate research. They may not be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

Taranaki

10th October 1891

Send a very hurried note last afternoon by wire and thank you, but I had no time then. The Court is dropping its heavy bagage. The Grading pro= gress, it is rather good = = to me work, but you get accustomed to it & am very glad I had to come here before another = the last ~~occasion~~ ^{day.}

What color ornaments are you going to have; is pink a very little one, & will allow you to crisp your hair; I wonder if you could get a pair of orange boots made, lace up the front, they would be so pretty, & I much better than black with a light strap.

Good bye my dear darling, but I'll be home by the 17th
I'll be home by the 17th
I'll be home by the 17th delighted to see to get them. The eyes must be from such the top of little young. You have better I think send for the things from Cambridge.

the Dr. I am such an old boy to get up the other see of the service. With I am the China sent from home there it is in the captured. If you can After send her a post

I'll be home by the 17th

So just as you like about home. These Lucia Maria going to the Gade. My morning & night as I dancing for hours for my promised. As to As what you fancy. I am sure for the wedding = Can my faith & trust I think myself it is we do story to you. How I rather too much. The for feel sure you would know how my feelings both and in any way contrary. regard to the Maria - I my wish - You are I shall be up & stand in a good friend dear wife. time enough to arrange to me. I trust you proper. for my hope for the occasion may be answered in due for you must not let
without the permission of
The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington

asking many questions to hope soon to see you to my thoughts of it make my head even though my head, I quite excite me Am I not provingly, after to when I think of you, I send a heap of loving condoling ~~papers~~ & my own Dear Arthur pub., I believe we in your trav & abroad bestward W.M.

Toronto.
Friday 19: 1887

Received your letter this morning my own darling love, then is a steamer due here this day back to 26th. I shall return by her, provided there is not too much delay, I can get on board, it does sometimes happen that report cannot communicate in account of being too long, but I shall write you. That will not occur. I only let you know this. This

Copies are supplied only to facilitate private research and may be reproduced without the permission of:

The Alexander Turnbull Library
P.O. Box 12349
Wellington