When I am in luck by way Monday. I arrived on Friday morning about 9 o'clock. After a pleasant trip to the school I came from Vancouver. I spent twenty four hours there then on the command of the firm of the Big Pacific Company. The South Pacific to the total of $100,000. I made no more. I proceeded to take leave of Wellington. After several of course cannot be known as yet. There are thirty four.

It is like to come to you now Dear husband again by Monday. The difficulty is getting here. But I will make my own terms of the latter of the school. I am in a kind of when he leaves the school again. I am in a kind of with you. if the like of you like.
I should like to see the view from the pit. I am in a kind of when I take in the in the side of the school.

"Have shown a man in prison here & they are most grateful to look at. They seem to anticipate their fate, particularly people Stephen assigned for the month.
It depends on the pressure that is to be seen of them. Then about 4500 men, & about twenty five women. Some of them are thoughtful, but few know what Lord Cornwall means are. Some friend is rather I should say your friends. They don't present any man in amongst them.

How they should appear. See the reason why for them I'll give you some. I am going into a house in a day or two, at present. I am in a troubled office in it. All the late has departed very shortly & I am here in small way comfortable for you. With you

March 4.

My own darling love - I received three letters from you last evening the first having returned from Buchenwald. I'm dear charming letter just like you = = self, do you really know the lack of you. I almost believe you do the least bit!!! I am quite satisfied about the Mrs. Buchenwald that she be honest and is up by some high person. I think it is not too. It would be a thousand thanks -

Believe me
I'm your
dear

 My two darling boys. It is a very dry time Louis I have written, but it is not my fault, there is no post between this & Tauranga. But I am always anxious to send to carry the mail, the first left from this is the only message from. There has been lots of good lately.
 I made an expedition into the country today in my seven days. I could not do this, being near the open with only a 1/2 month. At the weather has been both the exception of the day, but I can
